There was a NATO Delegation meeting this morning at the Hotel Talleyrand. Afterwards Doug MacArthur came out to lunch with me.

Alphand told me this afternoon of his reactions to the Bermuda meetings ~~which~~ he had attended. He is anxious to take up in Paris the matter of guarantees of stationing of U.S. and U.K. troops on the Continent which Bidault had presented at Bermuda.

Tonight we went to dinner at the Hughes'. It was in honor of the Dulleses. There were about 25 people present, all Americans with the exception of Jacqueline Patenôtre and Marthe de Fels.
